HEALING POWERS OF COLORED ISAIAH IN BAY PROVES FATAL

Jeff Clark, Well Known Colored Man of This City, Drops Dead at Baptist Church When Man Claiming to Heal by the Touch Tries His Power on Subject.

"TO BE HEALED, YOU MUST NOT SNICKER," HE SAID.

Pandemonium Reigns When Man Drops Dead—Doors of Church Are Closed—Colored Isaiah Was Taken Away and Boarded Train at Waveland for Parts Unknown.

There was quite a sensation in colored church circles and the town generally Tuesday night, when Jeff Clark, well known colored man of this city, dropped dead while attending services at the colored Baptist church, adjoining the Odd Fellows' Hall, in Washington street.

It appears an itinerant preacher, a Black Isaiah, claiming to heal by magic, as he put it, was holding a series of services at the church. And by the laying of the hands claimed the power of healing. Many of the colored folk attended the services nightly. Of the many present Tuesday night, Jeff Clark was one of the number. He walked up the middle aisle and the man of the magic healing power accused him of laughing. "If you snicker, you'll not be healed, brother," he said. You must be serious and have faith.

Clark took heed to the injunction. And walking towards the rostrum with the aspect of all seriousness, he halted when he reached the healer. The "laying of the hands" proceeded and when Clark felt the touch over his body, without word or previous warning, he dropped dead.

What manner of healer is this? Pandemonium reigned. Brothers shouted; sisters in the faith fainted. However, the front door was bolted and no one was allowed to leave the premises for the time being. But there was one opening that was not guarded. That was by the back way route. Colored Isaiah was secreted away and taken to Waveland, from which point it is said he boarded a train for parts unknown.

Clark's death was pronounced due to heart failure. He had been ill and he had hoped the healer might cure him. He was a native and life-long resident of Bay St. Louis, residing opposite the baseball park. He was well known and enjoyed the respect of all who knew him. Industrious and a peaceful citizen. His funeral took place the following evening, interment at Cedar Rest Cemetery.

ONE SHIPMENT BRINGS $1,336.16 TO PASCAGOULA FARMERS.

Eleven members of the Pascagoula Produce Association received $1,336.16 net for one carload of mixed vegetables shipped last week. Check for the amount was received this morning by County Agent J. W. Pate from F. H. Adams, of Long Beach, marketing agent for the association.

The produce sold on the market for $1,960.25. After the freight, commissions and cost of selling were paid, $1,336.16 was paid to the growers, divided according to the number of hampers and crates each had in the shipment.

Beans composed the bulk of the shipment, the balance being made up of carrots, potatoes, beets and cabbage.

In mailing the check for the produce, Mr. Adams said: "This is the best price we have had this year for any car from any point, and I wish to compliment you all on the good result."—Pascagoula Chronicle-Star.

ATTENTION, LOCAL BUTCHERS! Dr. Wm. Cain, county veterinarian and general supervising inspector for city and county, requests The Echo to call the attention of all butchers that it will be necessary for them to secure a special permit before bringing cattle on foot into this county.

This is a federal requirement, and Dr. Cain will prosecute all who will continue this practice. Butchers will govern themselves accordingly and avoid trouble.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Five Graduates from Bay High Receive Diplomas Last Night at W. O. W. Hall—S. F. von Ehren, President School Board, Presented the Diplomas—Dr. C. F. Tausch, of Tulane University, Delivers Annual Address—Excellent Program Rendered.

There was a large and cultured audience last night at W. O. W. Hall to witness the seventeenth annual graduation exercises of the Bay High School. It was both a beautiful and interesting event, and the program rendered was appreciated by all present.

The graduates were Miss Willie Dill Ansley, Mr. Hammel Jackson, Miss Luvinia Saucier, Mr. Robert von Ehren, Miss Emma Summersgill, a class of young people of unusual intelligence and application.

The program opened with a march, violin and piano, to the time of which the graduates entered single file from the front entrance of the hall through the middle aisle and up to their positions on the stage, where members of the Board of City School Trustees and other distinguished citizens were seated. The invocation was delivered by Rev. W. A. Murray, pastor of the local Baptist church, followed by a violin solo by Master Rene de Montluzin, pupil of the grammar grades of the Central School.

The delivery of the graduation essays was interesting. The papers were all of excellent character and delivered with equal success. Miss Luvinia Saucier delivered "A Beginning, Not An Ending," followed by Mr. Hammel Jackson, "Shall the Spirit of America Prevail?" Song, "Voices of the Woods," by the class '22. "Neglected Opportunities," by Miss Emma Summersgill. Violin solo, Miss L. Armstrong. "Future Demands of American Manhood," Robert von Ehren. "Our Aim, Success; Our Hope, To Win," by Miss Willie Dill Ansley.

Dr. C. F. Tausch, professor at Tulane University and a speaker of reputation, delivered the annual address to the graduates, well received by the young ladies to whom it was addressed and appreciated by the audience. His address was a feature of the program.

Mr. S. F. von Ehren, president of the Board of School Trustees, presented the beautiful diplomas, in book form. He delivered an impressive address, which was well received. Mr. von Ehren is a practical and successful man and always has something to say worth while.

The exercises, prepared and presented under the auspices of Miss Cora Lea Pearson, principal, were of unusual merit and this fact was well appreciated by the audience. It was both a credit to teacher and pupil and we might add to the school, which is enjoying a larger patronage than ever and is flourishing. The Board of Trustees, too, are to be complimented on the success of the schools, and Supt. McCluer, who is untiring in his work.

The music of the evening for the program was supplied by Mrs. C. G. Moreau, piano; Miss Louise Armstrong, violin.

MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS AT LO-CAL HOTEL.

Bay Hotel, Formerly the Pickwick, Undergoing Thorough Renovation, and Many Improvements Noted.

Under the new management, the Bay Hotel (formerly the Pickwick) already shows many improvements and the place has all the appearances of "Welcome, Stranger; come in and stay."

The front fence has been removed, a cement sidewalk laid along the front of the premises and the yard has been beautified. On the interior the building is in the hands of a corps of painters. The painting completed, the entire porch, front and back galleries, as well as the upper portion, will be screened with copper wire. This is an extensive work, but it means comfort, health and security. Visitors will appreciate this.

One of the cottages is practically being rebuilt. This will be exclusively for the use of traveling men. There will be one room for their use as office or lounging room, the others sleeping apartments. Attached to this cottage is a bath room, with shower. Traveling men will appreciate this thoughtful arrangement.

Manager Babcock has a splendid chef and the dining room service is of the best. In all the Bay Hotel has started out under the most favorable auspices and the outlook is promising. As time will go on many innovations will be added, and nothing will be allowed to remain undone that will tend to the comfort and interest of guests.

LOCAL BANK MAN IS SIGNALLY HONORED.

Cashier Leo W. Seal, of Hancock County Bank, Receives Recognition From the American Bankers' Association.

A local man has been honored. His business ability and prestige has been recognized, and the mantle has fallen well and fittingly.

Leo W. Seal, cashier of the Hancock County Bank, of this city, was elected one of the vice presidents of the State groups, representing Mississippi, for the American Bankers' Association, a national organization for bankers. It was while the association was in session at Jackson this week, after the State Bankers' Association had adjourned, that the meeting was held and the election took place. The compliment is all the greater when it is learned that Mr. Seal was absent when his selection was made.

A. & G. THEATRE WILL OBSERVE MOTHERS' WEEK WITH EVENT

Management of Local Theatre Shows Regard for "Mothers' Week" and Will Mark the Beginning of Next Week With the Showing of a Wonderful Film For Two Consecutive Nights.

"OVER THE HILL" FILM FEATURE TO BE PRESENTED.

Picture Shown in New York for $2.00 Will Be Shown in Bay St. Louis for the Price of 40 Cents—Special Concession Made—This Simple Yet Wonderful Picture Has Shattered All Precedents.

Ever thoughtful and considerate, and with due deference to the occasion, the management of the A. & G. Theatre, the "theatre beautiful," announces that Mothers' Week—beginning tomorrow and continuing all next week—will be duly observed.

For the occasion there will be presented on Monday and Tuesday nights a William Fox super feature, based on Will Carleton's famous poem, "Over the Hill." This picture comes from a year's run in New York City, where it was shown at $2.00. At no place will it be exhibited for less than 55 cents, including war tax, but the management of the A. & G. has been granted a special concession, and will charge 40 cents for adults, including the war tax, 20 cents for children. This is an unusual concession.

Witnessing the screen version of Will Carleton's "Over the Hill," one can understand why it played one solid year in New York city, and was there seen by more than 1,000,000 people. It pictures the universal family, and, best of all, the universal mother.

Sedate men, austere men, old and young men felt the tremendous urge of its emotion and its sparkling shafts of humor as a harp responds to the musician who plays it, and tears—real, watery tears—rolled down many a cheek which had not been so affected since childhood.

The picture is a ten-reel affair, wholesome, clean, inspiring. It is not a great spectacular extravaganza calling for massive settings, gilded scenes or an expensive cast; yet with its homely story, a little old-fashioned mother, an affectionate but weak-willed husband, six kids, a dog and a humble home, it has an appeal which beats the other and more pretentious showings in the shade.

There is a Mothers' Day feature to it, too, which appeals to welfare workers everywhere, for one is waffled, as it were, on a magic carpet into one's own home, and in the warp and woof of the carpet is woven the silver threads of a mother's great sacrificial, unselfish affection for the "bone of her bone and the flesh of her flesh," and through it all there is a song of home that leaves an ache in the heart and a glow in the soul.

It brings out the meanness, the pettiness, the cowardice of us; but, thank God, it also shows our fineness, our generosity and our nobility. One cannot help thinking after seeing the play that a man whose Christian mother stands up for him at the Gate will be able to carry on a very good argument with St. Peter.

No one should miss "Over the Hill," which opens in Bay St. Louis next week. It was cast without a star, Mary Carr, who assumed the role of Ma Benton, the mistreated mother, has gained international fame as an actress, and Johnnie Walker, the "black sheep" of the story, has been named a star by William Fox.

According to statistics and expert estimates which have come to the New York offices of Mr. Fox, more than 30,000,000 people will have seen the film. Agencies throughout the world have clamored for the privilege of distributing it outside of the countries in which Mr. Fox maintains his own organizations. Only recently the Middle East Films, Ltd., closed negotiations for distributing "Over the Hill" in the Orient, England, Japan, China, France, Spain and even Russia, either have seen the picture or will see it in the near future.

OYSTERS TO BE PLANTED.

Seed oysters will be planted immediately upon the Biloxi reefs, and shells will be planted upon the Pass Christian and other reefs under Chief Oyster Inspector Steehling, in order to replenish the supply for the next season.

CATTLE TO BE DIPPED EVERY FOURTEEN DAYS

General Supervisor Wm. Cain for Hancock County Says Law Must Be Carried Out—Every Owner Must Dip All Cattle—Also Every Head of Cattle Must Be Marked at the Dipping Vat—This Will Identify Your Cattle and Prevent Theft.

Dr. William Cain, general supervising inspector for Hancock county, has received official notification from Jackson that all cattle must be dipped every fourteen days, to the very day. The schedules sent out the beginning of the present month will not hold, for the law is very specific and the State is very particular as to its enforcement.

It has been noticed, says Dr. Cain, that a number of people have only a number of their cattle dipped and not all. This is a serious offense, and the State as well as the county will not stand for this violation. If it is good for one head to be dipped it must be good for all. And if the county is to be rid of the tick it cannot be done unless every head is treated alike.

Dr. Cain is simply carrying out his bountiful duty when he insists that all cattle be dipped, and he feels that every citizen in Hancock county owning cattle will co-operate with him.

There has been considerable objection in some parts of the county to the marking of cattle with dye as they leave the dipping place. This is done, of course, to identify the cattle that have been dipped, but it serves a double purpose inasmuch as many owners live on the county line and cattle crossing over into the foreign territory can be told at a glance, besides it protects the individual owner from theft. Should stock so marked stray away it can thus be easily identified.

Every effort is being exerted by Dr. Cain and his local inspectors in helping to get the county rid of the tick, the success of which would mean staying the ravages of the pest and the saving for the people and the county of untold amounts of money. Dr. Cain is more than willing to assist the stock owners with their problems. If in doubt, communicate with him by telephone. He will be glad to advise and to assist.

MISS KERGOSIEN ENTERTAINS GRADUATES.

Class of Bay High School Delightfully Entertained at "The Beach Garden" of the Beach Drug Store Last Evening.

Following the commencement exercises of the Bay High School at the Woodmen auditorium last evening, Miss Clara Kergosien entertained charmingly and delightfully in compliment to the members of Class '22. The party was held at the "Beach Garden," over the waves of the Beach Drug Store. The delightful place, where the gulf breezes ever blow, had been especially decorated for the occasion, the class colors of purple and gold noted on every side, with a profusion of cut flowers and potted plants.

Dainty place cards marked the table location for each guest and served as favors. Refreshments were served and the happy hour was all too fleeting. Miss Kergosien made an ideal hostess and the success of the party was due to her solicitation for the guests' pleasure and her gracious manner.

Those present were: Misses Willie Dill Ansley, Emma Summersgill, Luvinia Saucier, Messrs. Robert von Ehren and Hammel Jackson, representing the class; Prof. Leon McCluer to head the schools. He and his assistants have worked hard and it is noteworthy that their efforts have met with such success.

MOTHERS' DAY MAY 14

On next Sunday, May 14, a universal celebration will take place in honor of the mothers of the world. This is a fitting tribute of reverence, respect and honor to our mothers.

Mother's Day originated with Miss Ann Jarvis, of Philadelphia, in 1908, who, at the death of her mother, conceived the idea of setting aside one day in the year when the nation, as a whole, might unite in paying homage to motherhood. Since then this beautiful custom has grown and met with favor throughout the world. It is not only a nationally celebrated event, but has become universal, the whole world on this occasion honoring our mothers.

If mother be living, the custom is to don a pink or red flower, and if she has passed to the Great Beyond her memory is commemorated by the wearing of a white flower. The carnation has been adopted as the most appropriate flower to be worn on this occasion.

The observance of this occasion is one that is cherished by all mothers. This is the time when the negligent son or daughter remembers to write home, to send flowers or some other token to show love and appreciation of the one who has meant most to them. Sometimes it's a telegram that reassures her of your love; but however small the gift, it is doubly precious to the mother who receives it.

FARMERS OF THE FUTURE.

At the graduating exercises of the National Farm School, near Doyletown, Pa., when diplomas were awarded to the largest class in its history, the interesting announcement was made that every one of these young men had already secured a position, presumably in an occupation where his knowledge of scientific farming and practical agriculture can be put to good account. Of what other school can this be said? It furnishes convincing proof, if any were needed, of the growing importance of the farmer in our national life. For many years emphasis has been placed largely on the development of manufacturers in order to make America as independent as possible of other countries. Since the world war, when our farmers had to raise food not only for our own people but for a large part of Europe as well, much greater attention has been given to the problems of the farm. We are getting more and more to be an agricultural nation. And more and more there is an opening for the young man who possesses actual knowledge of modern farming and its methods.

With some people the main use in a government is to have something to blame things on.

Radio will probably never be popular with politicians. There are no wires to be pulled.

We can say this for the men who have short chins—they are the most graceful tobacco chewers.

It has also been the experience of a good many people that the wages of sin never skip a pay-day.

One sure way for a woman to keep her husband home at night is to ask him to take her some place.

The wise candidate is the one who comes out on a platform of more than one spring bonnet a season.

If there is a man who thinks he has too much money, our advice is try running a newspaper for a while.

As we see it there's more "con" than anything else in these world conferences they've been holding recently.

At the rate Germany and Russia are printing money the best thing a fellow could own over there is a paper mill.

The meanest man is the one who blames it on the printer because he can't raise vegetables as pretty as the pictures in the seed catalogues.

About the only time we don't care if the world does go to the dogs is when we meet a fellow with a lot of perfume on his clothes.

It begins to look as though about the only time the Ku Klux Klan gets to wear its uniform any more is when it attends a funeral of one of its members.

We have also noticed that the courts of this country seem to be in pretty good repute with people who behave themselves.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who used to do most of his courting on the way to and from church?

We see where a New York couple were married in an airplane. That's not new. Lots of married couples here have their ups and downs.

REPUDIATE HARDING ADMINISTRATION.

The defeat last week of Senator New by ex-Senator Beveridge for the Republican nomination in Indiana is regarded in many quarters as a distinct repudiation of the Harding administration, though partisans of the President have been quick to discount the adverse majority turned against the erstwhile stalwart champion of the President and the policies of his administration.

Mr. Harding has been in power slightly over fourteen months, and if there has been any change for the better during that period it has not become apparent to the American people. The promises and pledges made by the Republican party in the last campaign have not been kept, perhaps, let us charitably say, because they could not be kept. Such being the case, the misguided Southern Democrats who voted for Harding in a spirit of revenge have poor consolation, indeed, though they have waited patiently these weary months for the uplifting of the "golden horn" and the loosening of the flood of wealth and prosperity they were promised.

Mr. Harding is undoubtedly and unquestionably a man of small parts and smaller calibre. He is President because of a political action, and, though he has had ample time in which to make good, he has fallen down on the job sadly. The charge, repeatedly made, that he was handled by the corporate interests seems well founded, in the light of happenings since he assumed the reins of power at Washington. That he is incapable of relieving a tense situation is now well recognized, and even the liberal and independent voters of his own party, notably in Indiana, are so disgusted with the progress of events that they do not fail to vote against any candidate who bears the earmarks of the nation's executive.

The signs of the times do not promise well for the Republicans in the coming congressional election. Carried into power two years ago by a record-breaking majority; controlling both Senate and House by large majorities, it would appear that the day of reckoning is close at hand. Too many voters, it is true, believed the golden promises passed out to them by the oily-tongued Republican speakers. The country was undergoing the natural slump from the tide of high prices to that of normalcy. Human nature is much alike the world over, and people, accustomed to wallowing in a flood of wealth and feeling like bloated millionaires, were disgusted with the changed conditions and voted against the Democratic candidates in resentment. Hence the unparalleled Republican victory.

Mr. Harding owes none of his great electoral and popular majority because of his personal popularity or fitness for office. The victim of circumstances, he has been clothed with power and authority far beyond his ability to handle.

The reaction is about to set in, and unless the Republicans awake to their failures and blunders of the past year they are facing certain defeat in November and a crushing one in 1924.

THE FARM BOY.

There is a saying that the cities are run by the sons of farmers, and we believe it is largely true. We are also of the opinion that farm life is the greatest training school a man can attend. To a youngster who has handled a plow, milked cows, made hay, threshed wheat and broken ice in order to get a painful of water, the average city job is nothing more than play.

The boy reared on the farm, or in towns like Bay St. Louis and vicinity, bucks up against nature and his problem is one of conquering natural forces. The city man bucks up against other human beings, and the prizes go mostly to those who are able to organize men to a common purpose. You can fool people, but you can't fool nature. Yes, and the country boy learns early the habit of work, and the habit remains with him after he has adopted city life. We remember reading once these words "Any city job seems easy after you have worked on a farm."

It has been said that every honest man in a city has at some time had a level, a square or a plumb-bob in his tool kit. There's something to it, too, for a man who is in the habit of making things square, plumb and level usually thinks straight. They ought to be same manual training in every city boy's education. That's the best way to teach him the need of accuracy. And it would also be a fine thing if every city boy, and every town boy, too, could spend at least a year on a farm. We believe he could easily sacrifice a year in school for this experience.

The State Council of the Knights of Columbus, which has been in session at Laurel, for several days, has adjourned to meet at Natchez, Miss., next year. The following officers were elected: Past State deputy, Nicholas Conti, Vicksburg, Miss.; State deputy, John Swenck, Biloxi; State secretary, Carroll C. Adams, Meridian; State treasurer, G. O. Kornadoffer, Natchez; State advocate, C. S. Street; State warden, No. G. Peters, Jackson; State chaplain, Rev. John Pendergast, Natchez; alternates to National Council, John Ballen, Vicksburg; E. Desporte, Jr., Biloxi.

A DRASTIC LAW.

The recent session of the Mississippi Legislature enacted a most drastic law relative to the drawing of checks, as follows:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, that if any person shall make, issue and deliver to another person, for value, any check, draft or order on any bank or other depository and thereby obtain from such other person any credit, money, goods or other property of value, and have no funds or have insufficient funds, on deposit to his credit in said bank or depository with which such check, draft or order may be paid, and same shall not be paid by such bank or depository on presentation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, if the amount of the check, draft or order be under twenty-five dollars ($25.00), and, upon conviction thereof, he shall be fined not less than the amount of such check, draft or order and not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00), or imprisonment in the county jail not less than one day nor more than thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court; and if the amount of the check, draft or order shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more, he shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years, and the drawer of such check, draft or order shall be prosecuted in the county in which he delivers the same, or in the county of the bank or depository on which it is drawn, wherever prosecution may be first begun.

Provided, however, that if the person who makes, issues, and delivers any such check, draft or order shall, within ten days from the time he receives written notice of the non-payment of such check, draft or order, pay the same, together with all lawful protest fees, interest and damages, if any, he shall not be prosecuted under this act, and any prosecution that may have been begun within the time above mentioned, shall, if payment of such check, draft or order, protest fees, interest and damages, if any, be made as aforesaid, be dismissed on payment of the costs of prosecution, by defendant. Said written notice may be given by said bank or other depository, or by the payee or drawee in said check, draft or order, or by any officer who shall protest same. And the mailing, postpaid to the postoffice address of the maker, or drawer of such check, draft or order, shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of such notice. That this act take effect and be in force on and after May 1st, 1922. Approved March 7th, 1922.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

Occasionally someone says that he does not care what is said about him in the newspapers. He is a liar. Our experience has been that people who say that they do not care are the one who care the most. Almost without exception people like to have their names in the paper if complimentary things are said about them. And without exception no one wants anything published about him that in any way reflects on his conduct, habits, ability, character or reputation. Some people are more sensitive than others, but there is no one, unless he has sunk so low that he has lost all decency and self-respect, who does not hate to have unpleasant things put in the paper about him.

We heard recently of a man right close to Bay St. Louis who said that he did not care what the papers said about him, that when they did say anything that he did not read it. We will lay a little bet that while this man is so stingy that he never buys a paper, that there has never been anything published about him that he has not in some way got hold of the paper and read it; that having read it, if it is derogatory to him, that he calls the editor all the mean names of which he can think; that he will never overlook an opportunity to abuse the editor, but that he will never have the courage to say anything to the editor.

It is because that they know the publication of derogatory statements but their feelings and the feelings of their friends, that editors often say nothing about such matters in the papers. But do not believe anyone who tells you that he does not care what the papers say about him.

The Biloxi City Commission will shortly drill an artesian well at the Naval Reserve Park, also establishing there a drinking fountain and bathing pool for the accommodation of visiting automobile tourists and others who frequent the place.

HOSPITAL DEDICATED.

The new Yazoo hospital was dedicated Sunday afternoon, it having just been finished during the last week. Visitors were admitted at the opening with more than 300 people attending the dedication.

HOUSE HIT THREE TIMES.

During an electric storm at Tishomingo last week lightning struck the house occupied by Charley Prim. No serious damage was done and the occupants escaped injury, but this is the third time within the last five years that this same house has been struck by lightning.

WATCH OUT FOR HIM.

When you hear a Bay St. Louis man talking about how good he is, watch him. Straight, honest men do not need to advertise the fact. If a man has conducted himself so that there is no reason to doubt him, he does not have to remind you of the fact. Why brag about being honest? If you have to boast about it, it must be a different kind of honesty from what most people have. A true-blue man never had to tell his friends of his loyalty, for evidence is stronger than words, and time tells the story. Never a flim-flammer yet who did not try first to convince his proposed victim that he was honest. Naturally he provides some alleged proofs that seem above suspicion—for the crook always knows that he must first gain confidence before he can play his game. So, keep an eye on the fellow who has to advertise his honesty—it usually isn't the brand of honesty that you are best acquainted with, or the kind that will help you after you have become acquainted with it.

A GOOD ARGUMENT.

We heard a Bay St. Louis man advance a mighty good argument a few days ago when he declared that "anything that is worth owning is worth insuring." Almost every week we read in our exchanges where a farmer lost his house or barn, and that it was not covered by insurance. We should never allow ourselves to lose sight of the fact that fire protection is not as efficient in the smaller towns as it is in the cities, where they have modern apparatus and well-paid firemen. And protection from fire in rural districts is even less than it is in the small towns. In fact, hardly once in a hundred times is it possible to save a farm house or barn, once the flames have gained headway. The farmer can't maintain a properly equipped farm and a fire department, too. Even in town, where it is necessary to depend upon volunteer firemen, the danger is far too great to be overlooked. The gentleman was right when he declared that anything that is worth owning is worth insuring.

MONEY MADE IN BASKETS.

Honeysuckle Vines, Pine Needles Used for Profit.
Wiggins, Miss., May 7.—A profit of over $200 is reported by one South Mississippi girl from the making and marketing of fancy baskets, while agents of the A. and M. College report that $700 was cleared by this work in all the counties that have undertaken it.

In most instances the work is done under the direction of home demonstration agents and the materials used are honeysuckle vines, pine needles and willow, all materials which grow abundantly and are free for the gathering.

The baskets have been exhibited before bazaars, State fairs and business conventions, with the result that a steady market is being found for all that can be made from florists, candy makers and dealers in novelties. They bring about $1.70 wholesale. As the materials are strong and light, the baskets are durable and when filled with fancy fruits or flowers enhance the manufacturers' sales considerably.

The art of weaving baskets from pine needles has been developed so extensively that there is now a ready sale for cured pine needles tied in half-pound packages. One South Mississippi girl living in Jackson county sold last season $30 worth of pine needles from which baskets were woven.

A candy factory in New Orleans has placed an order with a South Mississippi woman for 100 pine needle baskets at $1.50 each.

The honeysuckle baskets are unusually attractive and lacelike in weave and texture.

Biloxi fire losses in seventeen months total $6,000. An average of 52 alarms are answered each year in Biloxi, including a number of grass fires.

LOCAL TALENT GIVES CONCERT AT PASS CHRISTIAN.

The Bay-Waveland Concert Company Scores Another Success—Plenty of Local Talent, and All "Making Good."

On Thursday, May 4th, the Bay-Waveland Concert Party gave another concert at Pass Christian. With one exception, all the members were present, and in addition the Misses Featherstone and Roberts ably assisted at the piano.

Owing to the weather the audience was not as large as it might have been, but what it lacked in quantity was made up in quality and the program seemed to just fit. Miss Lillith Ansley gave two readings and was as usual at her best. Miss Slaymaker's impersonation of the American doughboy in "Kissed by a Man" was excellent. Miss Ruth Day, vocal soloist, did her best and the audience made her come back and do it again. Miss Grace Featherstone, besides giving a reading, was kept so busy at the piano as accompanist that she may as well have remained on the stage. Miss Eulie Roberts, daughter of Rev. Roberts, gave two piano solos that were real classics. She is a fine pianist. Mrs. Harding, Miss Harding and Col. Arnold, of Pass Christian, also assisted and were well received. Mr. W. H. G. Slaymaker, with Rastus, in a ventriloquical sketch, went "over the top." Rastus objected to an encore, but was finally persuaded to return. His emotions, however, got the best of him and the audience was undecided to laugh at him or cry with him. The laughs predominated. Mr. Slaymaker also entertained with several humorous songs that were well received.

Thanks are due Miss Nell Summers for her able management of the business end of the entertainment. Requests have been received from other communities for concerts. We appreciate the fact that we have such a supply of local talent and hope that they will be as successful in the future as in the past. Miss Summers will be glad to hear from any others who are willing to assist. Her address is Waveland, Miss.

"CHERRYLAND."

"Cherryland," a picture produced by the International Harvester Company, which shows how the cherries which appear in our markets in the early summer are grown, will be shown at the A. & G. Theatre on May 15th.

To show what modern fruit culture can be made, how many technical and scientific processes are involved in it and how these are applied in practice is the educational purpose behind it.

Japan is often thought of as the land of cherries, and if it was not for the tractors, cultivators and other advanced machinery shown in operation, one might almost think in watching the picture that he was looking at one taken in those far away islands.

There are a surprising number of processes involved in cherry production as shown, these including not only the planting of the orchards, but fertilization, cultivating and pruning, all done by advanced agricultural machinery and various processes involved in shipping the goods.

This is one of the series of pictures which the Southern Railway System, the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, the Georgia, Atlanta and West Point and Western of Alabama Railroads, and the Southern Bell and Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Companies are producing and exhibiting through the Southeast in combination with Southern Enterprises, Incorporated.

6th day of May, 1922.

R. W. WEBB, Mayor.

Attest:
SYLVAN J. LADNER, Secretary.
Moved by Alderman Buehler, seconded by Alderman Carver, and carried, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, no objections were filed by any property owner, or by any one else, with reference to the proposed construction of concrete sidewalks on Main Street, from Touline Street to Second Street, and from Second Street to Front Street, as per resolution previously adopted by this Board and which was properly published as provided by law;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That substantial concrete sidewalks be built on both sides of Main Street, from Touline Street to Second Street, and from Second Street to Front Street, by the City of Bay St. Louis, and charged against the property abutting, but the property owner shall have the right to construct his or their own sidewalk, and for the sake of uniformity in the work the sidewalks must be constructed as near as possible in accordance with the sidewalks previously built on Main Street and the plans and specifications adopted by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, and the property owners shall do the work within thirty days after the passage of this resolution. In the event the owner shall fail to construct said sidewalk abutting his or their property within said territory, the same shall be done by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen and the cost of the work shall be assessed against the owner as ordered by the Board and as provided by Chapter 200 of the laws of 1912 and amendments thereto, which acts of the Legislature of the State of Mississippi are expressly made a part hereof as though embodied herein.

Be it further resolved, that the Street Commissioner proceed to make investigation and make an immediate and full report to this Board of the sidewalks necessary to be built, the abutting property, the dimensions thereof, the name of the owner and embody in his report such other matters as in his judgment he may see fit, and in all other respects he is hereby ordered and directed to proceed with the work.

Be it further resolved, that due publication of these proceedings be made as required by law and said acts of the Legislature hereinabove referred to.

Moved by Alderman Sick, seconded by Alderman Buehler—Aldermen Sick, Buehler and Gillum voting aye, Alderman L. C. Carver voting no. Mayor vetoed.

Whereas, there appears to be some doubt about the legality of the allowance of $866.36 made by the Board to R. L. Genin on the first Saturday in April, as commissions on the work done by the State Highway Commission on Main Street; and

Whereas, large numbers of citizens and tax payers of the city have disapproved and condemned said allowance as being wrong in principle, regardless of the legality of same; and

Whereas, there appears to be a like dissatisfaction about the allowance of $135.50 made to the same party on the day of 1921, as commissions on the ad valorem taxes collected from Hancock County; therefore,

Be it resolved, by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Bay St. Louis, that Mr. R. L. Genin be and he is hereby requested to refund said amounts to said city, otherwise this Board will consider what further action it will take in the matter.

MAYOR'S VETO.
To the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the City of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

I enter this, my veto and disapproval of the ordinance, rule or order attempted to be passed on motion of Alderman Sick and seconded by Alderman Buehler, with reference to request to Robert Genin to pay the city certain money, because it was unanimously agreed services were rendered and money legally paid, and my further reasons therefor being that, said ordinance, rule or order is unconstitutional, illegal and in violation of the charter of the City of Bay St. Louis and contrary to the welfare of the City of Bay St. Louis, and for other reasons not necessary to be mentioned herein.

R. W. WEBB, Mayor.

Carey Asfaltslate SHINGLES.

The most practical and the most beautiful roof.

A modern shingle roof must be weather-proof, spark-proof, beautiful in material and color, durable in service and beauty, and the shingles must lay flat and never curl.

A roof of Carey Asfaltslate Shingles fulfills all these requirements.

Crushed slate provides a spark-proof surface. A special tampered asphalt compound makes Carey Shingles stiff-bodied and non-curling. The colors are a rich Indian Red and a beautiful Sage Green, fadeless, permanent.

The reasonable cost of Carey Asfaltslate Shingles makes them practical roofing for homes of moderate cost as well as for expensive residences where beauty and service are the deciding factors.

When you buy Shingles, let us demonstrate Carey Quality.

Let us show you.

PROF. AND MRS. McGUIER HOSTS TO TEACHERS.

Entertained Yesterday Afternoon in Compliment to the Teaching Corps of City Schools.

One of the most pleasant of the several affairs given during the week just ended was the plate luncheon given yesterday afternoon at the home in Carroll avenue of Prof. and Mrs. Leo McGuier, in compliment to the teaching corps of the city school.

There were many novelties introduced for the entertainment of the guests. One was the writing in verse by each teacher "My Ideal Husband." The affair was from 4 to 6 and time seemed to while away all too fast.

Since their stay here Mr. and Mrs. McGuier have endeared themselves to all with whom they have come in contact. As superintendent of city schools Mr. McGuier has not only proven himself efficient to the task and the man for the job, but has impressed his personality most favorably, and it is interesting to note his retention for next session. He will spend part of the summer at Nashville, Tenn., attending Peabody normal.

—Miss Willie Dill Ansley gave a box party at the A. & G. Theatre Monday night, followed by a party at the Tea Room, in compliment to the graduating class of the Bay High School, of which Miss Ansley is a member. A number of seats at the A. & G. were reserved for the party, and marked off by wide ribbons of purple and gold, the class colors. In the party were Prof. L. McCluer, superintendent; Miss C. L. Pearson, principal, and Misses Emma Summersgill, Luvina Saucier, Willie Dill Ansley and Messrs. Robert von Ehren and Hammel Jackson. For the occasion the Tea Room was beautifully decorated in the class colors and great bunches of Easter lilies predominated. It is needless to say the affair proved a most enjoyable one and the event will ever remain a memorable one to the participants.

—No social event has attracted more interest and anticipation has never run high as at present on the occasion of the forthcoming formal opening of the Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Club's new building, which event will take place on the evening of Saturday, May 20th.

As already stated, gentlemen will appear in white suits and the ladies in evening dress. Members will be admitted by their membership card. Ladies of their families and other guests will be admitted by application to the membership committee, and each name to be accompanied by $1.00. The payment of $1.00 will apply to a member's wife as well as any other guest. The opening promises to be a most brilliant affair and will easily be the event of events in local socialdom.

The funeral of Philip Scalfidi, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Scalfidi, who died in New Orleans Saturday morning, following an operation for appendicitis, took place Sunday afternoon from the residence of his parents and the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf. The remains were placed in the family tomb of A. Scalfidi, in St. Mary's Cemetery, and the funeral was largely attended as a mark of sympathy to the grief stricken parents. The deceased was a native of New York City, but resided in this city practically all his life. He was a capable and bright pupil and the future was promising for this fine lad.

The local Order of the Knights of the Maccabees, Tent No. 67, will entertain their friends tonight at the W. O. W. hall at a ball, the proceeds of which will be appropriated to the organization's relief fund. The committee in charge is composed of W. T. Hobbs, Thos. Machado, A. F. Piper, Jas. F. Taconi, Fred Fayard, Ed Prevaux, John Basford. The Maccabee affairs are always among the best of the city, sought for and prove enjoyable, and it is expected there will be a large attendance tonight. The call for assistance to the relief fund ought to, and we know it will, be liberally answered.

—Mr. J. L. Norman has been made executive manager for the firm of Edwards Bros., Ford selling agents for Bay St. Louis, and has assumed charge. Mr. Norman is by no means a stranger to the people of our city and county, but on the contrary is well and popularly known and his many friends will read these lines of his success with a feeling of gratification. Fair dealing and personal courtesy has built up a successful business and it will continue with such a gentleman as Mr. Norman in charge.

—Mr. George R. Rea, the aggressive and successful cashier of the Merchants' Bank, returned home Wednesday night from Jackson, where he attended the Mississippi State Bankers' Association, of which he has been prominently connected for years. Mr. Rea says the meeting was a successful one. The place of meeting for next year was left to the executive committee to decide in vacation. Mr. Rea says there is a predominant disposition to make the Gulf Coast the permanent place for meeting for the future.

—Horace Whitfield and George L. Horton, owners of the Bay Electric Company, are placing the outdoor or entrance lights on the building of the Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Club building, and have about completed their contract for the "wiring" and hanging the electric light fixtures throughout the premises. It was quite a contract; an extensive piece of work, well and satisfactorily carried out. The young men have secured quite a number of jobs in their line of business and it is interesting to note they are making quite a success of their business.

—The experiment of the city using gravel to patch the shell surfaced streets will be watched with interest, and, if successful, it is expected that in time the city streets will be gravelled. The shell road is of short life and the upkeep is expensive, especially in this day of traffic increased manifold. It is noted that each year the supply of oyster shells grows limited as the price increases, besides the shell road does not hold up under the heavy usage.

—Logtown is to have a visit from the Chautauqua. The Radcliffe Chautauqua Company is to visit there on the afternoons and nights of June 3, 5 and 6. An unusually interesting program is to be presented, and it is expected many from Bay St. Louis will motor to the little city on the Pearl to attend one or more of the entertainments. Logtown people are to be congratulated on getting the Chautauqua for their locality.

S. S. C. TEAM PUTS UP GOOD FIGHT TO EBERHARD PLAYERS

Game Sunday Was Classy, Even Though the Locals Went Down to Defeat Before the Professionals. Visitors Scored Their First in the Fifth—Lower's Clean Hit.

"GIANTS" AND "INDIANS" OF LITTLE YARD CLOSE SEASON.

Stanislaus Has Two Games With Gulf Coast Military—One Here Tuesday; The Other Thursday at Gulfport—The "Jinx" Followed the Locals to Gulfport Diamond.

On Sunday last the Stanislaus varsity nine went down to defeat before Eberhard's Dixie Leaguers. This is the strongest semi-pro team in this section and probably has no peer in the entire South. Many of the old-time Southern League stars are numbered among its players.

In this game the College team made the best start they have ever made thus far this year. They put out the first three Dixie Leaguers at bat and in their half of the inning Bishop, the lead-off man, was walked; Martin also was walked. Fruge hit to the shortstop, who threw Martin out on second. This put Bishop on third. Lower's clean hit to left field scored Bishop. This ended the scoring.

LEAGUERS SCORE FIRST IN FIFTH. The Dixie Leaguers scored their first in the fifth. Buck Banville singled; Eckert followed with another single. Veazie then knocked a clean two-bagger. This scored Banville, but Eckert and Veazie both died on base.

They scored their second run in the sixth inning, when Fos made a three-bagger with one man out. Ernst hit a stiff one to the pitcher, which he fumbled. This easily scored Fos.

Again in the eighth they scored. Rogers got on base through an error on shortstop. McGovern, who followed, was thrown out at first; Fos, the next man up, also was thrown out, but Rogers advanced to third and a clean two-bagger by Ernst scored him. This ended their scoring. In the ninth inning they received two hits; no man reached second.

CONTESTANTS, ONE ERROR EACH. St. Stanislaus and the Dixie Leaguers made one error each. Gex and Montz, the Stanislaus battery, allowed eight hits; struck out three, and walked one. Rogers and Cazalot, battery for the Dixie Leaguers, allowed three hits; struck out six, and walked nine.

Score by innings: R.H.E. Dixie Leaguers 000 011 010—3 8 1 St. Stanislaus 100 000 000—1 8 1

St. Stanislaus—Phillips and Cue. JUNIOR LEAGUES CLOSE. Last Thursday saw one of the most spirited contests that has ever been played on the little yard diamond, when the Giants went down in defeat before the slugging Indians in the game which decided the championship of junior leagues.

In the first inning the Giants started off the hitting when Laporte, the lead-off man, hit a home run. The next man was thrown out. Cregasi, the third batter, sent the ball over the fence for a two-bagger. La Nasse singled; the next batter, Zeron, also singled and Crefasi came home. Hymel then sacrificed and La Nasse came home. The next man was thrown out at first. The score stood 3 to 0 in favor of the Giants.

The Indians started scoring in the fourth, when Meredier got safe on first through the first baseman's error. The next man fanned. Guedry, the next batter, sent the ball out to the center field for a three-bagger and Zeron's perfect peg was the only thing that kept him from following Meredier in home. Stephenson, the next batter, walked. S. Hymel got on first due to the baseman's error. Stephenson coming in on the play, Schenayder was walked. This filled the bases and Rosko's hit through second drove in the winning runs. The next men were put out, but the damage had been done, and the game ended 4 to 3 in favor of the Indians.

Score by innings: R.H.E. Giants 300 00—3 8 1 Indians 000 4 x—4 3 3

Umpire—Red Isbell. STANISLAUS RALLIES IN THE SEVENTH, WINNING FROM G. C. M. A.

On Tuesday, May 9th, the St. Stanislaus baseball team ventured forth on the local diamond to play their first game with the Gulf Coast Military Academy in two years.

During the earlier part of the game both teams seemed determined not to elicit the other score. This was done by some fine fielding on the part of both teams, and by the superb pitching of Cleveland and Spencer. Spencer with his little drop and "round-house outshoot" was able to hold the Collegians scoreless until the seventh inning, when Lower reached first on an error, Jaubert walked, and then Mr. Fruge appeared at the bat and poled out a two-bagger, scoring Loewer, and Jaubert. Keiffer then distinguished himself with the willow when he hit for a three-bagger. This successive hitting seemed to have somewhat baffled our "Lil' Friend" Spencer and the Collegians were able to score seven runs in the seventh inning, off of six hits, a walk and an error.

The visitors' three scores came in the fifth inning. They were the result of a walk, an error and two hits. STANISLAUS DEFEATED AT G. C. M. A.

Thursday afternoon, on the diamond of the Gulf Coast Military Academy, the St. Stanislaus baseball team suffered a defeat at the hands of the G. C. M. A. boys, that is somewhat a mystery to those who were not present at the game. After securing eleven singles, five doubles and a triple, and playing almost errorless ball, they went down at the mercy of the G. C. M. A. team, by a score of 7 to 6.

The G. C. M. A. boys made 8 hits, 2 errors and walked 3 men. Yet, dear friends, they won.

Lower, Fruge and Martin led the attack for the locals, while Laue led the attack for the Gulf Coast.

A further explanation is useless, for it cannot be "publicly explained" by the writer, and will therefore continue to be a mystery to those who do not understand baseball and umpires.

COLUMN de BULL.

By Fuller Bull.

Last week we made a very urgent call for help. We begged some of our Naval Store friends to come along and spill a ton or so of ROSIN on the trail of them birds from the House O'Brains, for they was hittin' the toboggan on the downward glide; Yea, Bo, Yea, Slippin' some!

Well, we went out on Tuesday to see if some guy had responded; an, Bo, they had; an Angel had camped on the trail where there was so much Graphite an', sprinkled the said run thick with the foresaid Rosin.

Slip? Not on your settin' hen! Them birds was all to the rosin with nary a slide, an' when they got their stride, why, Bo, they war'n't no stoppin' 'em, 'n' a tall. Kid Cleveland was straddle the mound with a grin on his fizz an' a bug in his bicep; only in one spasm did them Soldier boys have an pronounced gait; 'that was in the 5th, when they tripped in with three tallies.

We very kindly remarked to a geezer who was sittin' in our Port side: Wait till the bloody seventh, lad, an' you'll see em remark a few on that Drop-artist. Well, Hortense, shonuff it so, transpired. Them Starnbirds got to tryin' they wings out when One-ton Jaubert at that Breakfast food kid: Pettyjean, let fly a couple shots, then to keep up the fire Cricket Keiffer slams out a cenny-meely-mine-mo for three bags. Well, sister, that broke the enemy's gizzard strings, an' when the clouds broke an' the Bee-autiful sun shined out, the rays hit a BIG 7. Now, that's what we call makin' a Natural Pass, what?

Slip? No, babe, narry a dern SLIP. We must have Spring-fever, Ludovicka.

For we sure don't feel like work; We'd rather loll where streams run quicker, An' in the shade just smoke an' shirk.

We'd rather get the rod to slashin', In a bayou where they lurk, An' hear 'em come up splashin', Than this doggon business: work!

There's a lot o' things we'd sooner, Than to wear these laundered neckers: Listenin' to a merry tune er Two of hammerin' wood-peckers, Or gettin' out there on the farm Where we'd hear the hum o' bees—Them kinda buzzin' do no harm— Ah, Shucks! Excuse me, please.

BANK ELECTS NEW DIRECTOR. Merchants' Bank at Regular Meeting Last Night Elects New Member to Its Board of Directors.

At a regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Merchants' Bank, held at its banking house last night, Mr. E. J. Lacoste was unanimously elected a member and accepted the post by his presence and in a well worded and happy address.

Mr. Lacoste is well known. A prominent and successful business man of New Orleans, he is a permanent resident of Bay St. Louis, having resided here for several years, and is actively connected with all that tends to the best interests of Bay St. Louis. He is prominent socially and one of the moving spirits of the Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Club. The bank will get the benefit of his business wisdom and a wise selection has been made.

—Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Peacock and interesting family left Wednesday night for their home in Atlanta, Ga., after spending about a year in Bay St. Louis. They have many friends here and their departure will prove a source of much regret.
